1960-61 Budget Totals Over the Million Mark

The City Council Tuesday night adopted by an 8-0 vote a budget for the 1960-61 fiscal year. The budget, submitted by Mayor Abe Silverman through the finances and taxes committee, E. B. Smith, chairman, estimated revenues of $1,028,740 for the year, and appropriations of $1,028,300.

The total revenues, added to an unexpended balance for the past fiscal year of $173,996.68, would leave a working capital of $174,436.68.

Johnson Expects The Nod

Forces Say Nomination Is Assured

WASHINGTON—(AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson's campaign forces said today they aim to land the Democratic presidential nomination for him no later than the fifth convention ballot.

They conceded that overtaking the pace-setting Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts represents a large-sized order. But Oscar L. Chapman, co-chairman of the Citizens - for - Johnson campaign organization, issued the flat prediction that "we'll make it."

The Kennedy drive, Chapman said, "has gone about as far as it can go," adding that this is short of the 761 votes necessary to win the nomination.

Johnson formally announced his long-known candidacy only Tuesday and told a televised news conference "I expect to be nominated."

The Texas senator said his backers have told him a third-ballot victory is possible, but he added he feels no one can predict with certainty of which ballot the decision will come.

Chapman said the third ballot "will be crucial," and added in an interview: "That will be the keystone. The break in Kennedy's strength will begin to take place on the third ballot."

Hearing For 3 Charged In Gibbs Case

Case Bound Over To September Term Of Circuit Court

A preliminary hearing for the three men charged with manslaughter in connection with the death of Airman Leonard Gibbs on May 31 was held in Magistrate Court Wednesday morning.

After hearing testimony from Dr. Gordon Stauffacher, Pettis County Coroner, Sgt. E. W. Van Winkle of the Highway Patrol, Sedalia Chief of Police Ralph Hamlin, Trooper William Southwick of the Highway Patrol, and Deputy Sheriff George (Chick) Brown, Magistrate Frank Armstrong bound the case over to the next term of Circuit Court.

The three men charged are Floyd White, Mitchell Jackson and James Jackson. The charge was filed jointly. William F. Brown is the attorney for the defendants. The information filed by the State alleges that the three men killed or caused the death of Gibbs by striking and causing him to fall, and from such fall to suffer a fatal injury.

The charge is based on the medical report of Dr. Stauffacher, who performed the autopsy. Dr. Stauffacher, referring to his report, testified that, in effect, Gibbs died from inability to breathe, caused by nerve paralysis, brought on by a ruptured spinal cord in the neck. The rupture was caused by a broken neck, Dr. Stauffacher indicated.

Gibbs' body was found under the bridge on Cedar Creek, about three miles north of Sedalia on old Highway 65, by a crew of Highway Department employees seeking to pump water out of the creek for use in their work, on the morning of June 1.

The three men charged were arrested the same day the body was found, and later signed statements indicating there had been a drinking session followed by a trip to the area in which the body was found, then a fight in which Gibbs ended up in the creek.

Deputy Brown, who testified that he helped remove the body from the water and questioned the suspects prior to their making statements, has been commended by the Office of Special Investigations, Whiteman AFB, on "the very successful and experienced interrogation in which you broke the Gibbs case."

Richard B. Peterson, who signed the commendation, stated in part, "It is obvious to both Mr. Maggard and myself that it was through your meticulous recording of information, and purposeful interrogation, that the case was so fully completed."

Eisenhower Gives Views

World and National Affairs, Topics at Press Conference

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today rejected New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's contention that America's military strength has deteriorated.

At a news conference, the President also accused Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev of very crude attempts to interfere in this country's presidential campaign.

Eisenhower voiced confidence that neither Democrats nor the Republicans will find the Kremlin leader's advice of any value.

AS FOR Rockefeller, Eisenhower was reminded that the Republican governor has been critical of the administration in the economic as well as military fields, and has contended that U.S. military strength has declined while Russia's has increased.

The President commented that since 1953 he has sent eight budgets to Congress. Five, he said, were cut by Congress and three increased—in each case in election years.

The President said that by and large the Democratic-controlled Congresses have agreed with his Republican administration on military spending.

It is true, Eisenhower went on, that some individuals get deeply concerned about our defense position, and some get worried.

As for Rockefeller, he is entitled to his opinions and has a right to express them. Eisenhower added that he doesn't think such views will wreck the Republican party.

The President then said Rockefeller's views are his own—and they are not Eisenhower's.

In this news conference, his first in eight weeks, Eisenhower dealt also with these other matters:

CUBA—The President indicated he would act later in the day or Thursday on a bill giving him discretion to reduce shipments of Cuban sugar to the United States.

He gave no indication of whether he would cut Cuban quotas immediately after signing the bill.

BUDGET—Eisenhower declared it will be a miracle if the four-billion-dollar budget surplus which

Castro May Seize Firms

New Seizure Decree Authorizes the Power

HAVANA (AP)—Fidel Castro's cabinet today authorized him to expropriate all American property in Cuba and pay for it only if the United States buys more—not less—Cuban sugar at premium prices.

The new seizure decree, drafted by the cabinet at a session lasting beyond midnight, authorized President Osvaldo Dorticos or the prime minister to take over any property owned by U.S. companies or citizens in Cuba "when deemed necessary in the national interest."

The law also provides for expropriation of companies in which U.S. citizens may have "interest or participation." An example is the British-Dutch Shell Oil refinery whose operation—along with the U.S. Esso and Texaco refineries—was taken over by the government last week.

The Cabinet said the expropriation was authorized because of "the constantly aggressive attitude" of the U.S. government and particularly "the authority given President Eisenhower by Congress to reduce Cuba's sugar sales to the United States."

Underlining the retaliatory nature of the action, the decree pinned compensation for the seized property directly to American sugar purchases.

It said the American owners would be paid in 2-per cent, 30-year Cuban government bonds backed by a special fund. But the fund is to come from 25 per cent of the dollars paid for sugar sales to the United States in excess of 3 million tons a year and at a price of 5½ cents a pound or more.

Cuba's sugar quota this year is 3,100,000 tons, and sugar industry sources in Washington expect Eisenhower to cut it perhaps 700,000 tons. That would put American purchases 600,000 tons below the figure at which the first dollar would go into the compensation fund.

The decree also put a super premium price on Cuban sugar before the American owners can be repaid. The United States has been paying about 5½ cents a pound, or about 2½ cents above the world market price.

The decree specified that expropriation edicts could not be appealed.

It also contained what appeared to be a retroactive clause stating that it annulled all "legal dispositions and regulations that are opposed to the application of this law."

Police Force Adds Two New Policemen

The city council added two more men to the Sedalia police force Tuesday night. Appointed were Kenneth Neidholt, 27, 1009 East Sixth, and Harry M. Dirck, 39, 612 East 11th.

Father and Son Die In Osceola Crash

OSCEOLA, Mo. (AP)—A father and his son were killed today when a car left M-13 near Vista, Mo. and crashed against a tree.

The victims were Aubrey Allen Barrett, 21, Parkville, Mo., and Aubrey Allen Barrett Jr.

Mrs. Barrett, 20, who was driving the car, suffered a compound fracture of the right leg and multiple lacerations. She was brought to a hospital here and probably will be transferred later to a Springfield hospital.

Atkinson Company Is Low Bidder

Council Awards Contract To Replace Sewer Mains

Contract for replacement of the State Fair sewer mains was awarded by City Council Tuesday night to Atkinson Construction Co. for $46,430. T&O Lime and Rock Co. submitted a bid of $47,990. Engineers from Burns and McDonald of Kansas City had estimated the cost at $60,000.

The substantially low bids submitted by the two construction firms sent the sewer and sanitation committee and engineers from Burns and McDonald into a 45-minute session, to insure that no errors were made in the estimated cost and bid cost.

Both bids stated that work could get underway within 30 days, and that it could be completed within 90 days after the contract was let.

A petition was read protesting the pouring of seal coating on Barrett Ave. from 16th to 20th Streets. It had been signed by all except three of the property owners on the blocks involved.

On the other hand, residents on 11th Street petitioned for asphalt seal coating of 11th from Ohio Ave. to Osage. Both petitions were given to the street and alley committee for consideration.

Three ordinances were passed, placing into effect a special street repair program whereby property holders on the streets to be sealed will pay a special tax up to 30 cents per foot to have the work done.

Question Legality Of Trampoline Park Near Liberty Park

Councilman Ed Smith brought out at Tuesday's City Council meeting that a Trampoline business had opened across Liberty Park Blvd. from Liberty Park, and that to the best of his understanding the business was not licensed and is operating in an area zoned for residence.

L. W. Dickman, building inspector, was asked to explain this situation, and he said he instructed the owners to consult their councilmen and the park board before opening the business.

The council voted to authorize Dickman, the police, and Willard Morris to investigate.

Ike Says US Will Protect Its Interests

WASHINGTON—(AP)—President Eisenhower said the United States will act as it sees fit—if necessary—to protect its interests if Russia establishes a submarine base in Cuba.

He said, however, he does not regard the setting up of a Soviet submarine base as a "likelihood, but such a thing is a possibility."

Eisenhower was asked at his news conference whether he agrees with a statement by Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) that the United States might look for the establishment of such a base.

The President said he was not going to make any guesses about such a possibility. Such things are always possible in this world, he said, but he doesn't see much likelihood.

As to what the United States might do in such an event, Eisenhower drew attention to the Caracas resolution for mutual defense of the Western Hemisphere, and to the machinery of the Organization of American States.

Eisenhower said the OAS would no doubt come into play but that in its own interest this country might have to act as it saw fit.

Eisenhower said he did not want to talk at the moment in detail about what US policy might be in view of the Fidel Castro government's new law for expropriation of American property.

He said the new sugar bill, giving him the authority to cut the Cuban quota, reached his desk along with reports and studies by the appropriate departments only a few minutes before the news conference. He said he thought something would be said on this subject either later today or Thursday.

Eisenhower said this country is trying hard to have the Cubans understand that there is no quarrel between the people of this country and them but that the difficulties are caused only by what he called the inexplicable actions of their government.

The ordinances set up districts corresponding with wards two, three and four.

The district in ward one was passed at the previous council meeting.

Councilmen Pat Clark and Roland Snavely voted against the ordinances. Councilman Earl Paxton changed an abstention to a "yes" vote on district four after the city attorney, John McCloskey, ruled that the proposal had failed for lack of a majority. Councilman Roberts had joined Clark and Snavely in voting "no" on district four.

Subsequently, the council voted, on recommendation of Councilman Glenn Lewis, chairman of the street and alley committee, to prepare ordinances deleting three streets from the program. They are: 15th from Eabcock to Arlington, Barrett from 16th to 20th, and Harrison from 10th to 11th. The council voted to have an ordinance drawn adding 11th Street from Ohio to Osage.

Citizen Thomas McNally, 1016 South Harrison, again came before the council to protest the seal coat work and criticize past municipal street work in his block.

Demo Platform Builders Opine

Bread and Butter Issues May Overshadow Foreign

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Domestic "bread and butter" issues may overshadow foreign affairs in the coming campaign, a number of Democratic platform drafters predicted today.

A canvass of resolutions committee members indicated a majority feel the voters would be intensely interested in issues relating to:

Medical care for the aged, farm aid, housing, aid to education and economically depressed areas, employment and other pocketbook proposals.

This was true, most agreed, despite public attention paid recently to the U2 plane incident, the collapse of the summit conference, the withdrawal of President Eisenhower's invitation to visit Japan and an intensification of the cold war.

The committee is meeting in advance of the convention to weigh the pros and cons of various issues before coming to grips with the task of writing a party campaign document for presentation to the presidential nominating convention next week.

"It is difficult to dramatize foreign issues," said Carl Rice, veteran Kansas Democratic leader.

But from Maine's Alton A. Leesard came the view that voters there are more concerned about how the man in the White House handles critical foreign relations.

Both Rice and Leesard are members of the resolutions group. Generally, committee members from inland areas stressed domestic issues more than did their seaboard colleagues.

Pilotless Plane Is Cause of Auto Crash

COLUMBUS, Ga. (AP)—A motorist climbing out of his car after a collision was surprised to discover that a pilotless plane had caused the wreck.

The plane broke loose from its concrete block mooring at a nearby private airport during a storm Tuesday, soared 50 feet into the air and 100 feet to the expressway. J. Oliver Browder's car was slightly damaged but he was not hurt.

committee member said the farm issue is tops in her part of the country. She cited apparent victory of Democrat Quentin Burdick in a special senatorial race in that state last week—a victory many Democrats credit to farmer dissatisfaction with Eisenhower administration farm policies.

At Tuesday's opening session of the committee the domestic issues had the better of it. Committee members debated—at times with some heat—with spokesmen of the American Farm Bureau Federation and the American Medical for farm and medical care plans.

The Farm Bureau urged the committee to put the party on record as promising to do away with the high farm price supports and crop controls, a position that would bring a party turnaround on this issue and put it in general agreement with the Eisenhower administration.

Guritzky said the laundry wasn't authorized. The custodian failed to get a receipt and can't remember the laundry's name. Guritzky said the suits, usually cleaned at season's end in June, were worth $2,000.

steel production immediately after the strike settlement early this year was nothing short of astonishing.

As for the general economic situation, Eisenhower said that during April, May and June this year the output of all goods and services was at the rate of 503 billion dollars a year. He remarked also that employment was up by one million in May.

CAMPAIGN — Eisenhower said that at present his only plans for participation in the presidential and congressional election campaigns are a speech at the GOP National Convention in Chicago the evening of July 26, and a breakfast there the next morning. But in making that statement he did not rule out possible additional activity in the fall.

PRESIDENTIAL AGE — Asked for his views regarding the age of presidents, a question already figuring in this year's pre-convention campaigns, Eisenhower noted with a smile that if he serves out his current second term he will become the oldest president-in-office in history.

He will pass that milestone next Oct. 3—outstripping Andrew Jackson. Eisenhower will be 70 Oct. 14.

Eisenhower recalled that while president he has suffered three serious illnesses. He said he doesn't feel that those illnesses have been any decisive factor in his handling of his job.

Chuckling a bit, he went on to say that sometimes he may doubt his own intellectual judgment but he never doubts his own heart—that is, his determination to do the right thing.

NUCLEAR TESTS—Despite difficulties in reaching agreement with Russia, the President said, the United States and Britain should continue to make every effort to come to some understanding regarding a ban on nuclear weapons tests.

NEW PRESIDENT—Eisenhower pledged that his successor in the White House will have his full cooperation in the transition from one administration to the other. The new man, Eisenhower said, will find him ready and willing to discuss all problems facing the nation.

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE—Despite collapse of the May summit conference and other road blocks thrown up by the Communists he said, the United States always stands ready to conduct further talks so long as they are on a basis of honesty.

Among subjects for such talks, he specifically mentioned disarmament and suspension of nuclear tests.

As for his own place in history in the light of recent disappointments—collapse of the summit conference and cancellation of his visit to Japan—Eisenhower said it will be up to the historians to rate him among the presidents.

FARM—As for whether election of a Democrat in North Dakota's special senatorial election means to him that new farm policies are needed, Eisenhower replied he sees no need for a general revision of such policy.

He did call, however, for congressional action aimed at eliminating the tremendous wheat surplus.

Lewis announced that Lloyd Brown, grader operator, had been dismissed, and moved that Leo Botcher, 1320 Garfield, replace him at $340 per month. This received unanimous approval.

Albert Allgaier

Breakfast Optimists Install New President Wednesday

Merle Ostergard, Kansas City, governor of the Tenth District, Optimist International, installed the new president of the Breakfast Optimist Club, Albert Allgaier, at the meeting of the club Wednesday morning at Pacific Cafe. Governor Ostergard told the new president that in accepting this high honor of the club, which is a big responsibility, shows the respect and regard for which the members have for him. Ostergard stated he felt that the enthusiasm of Allgaier would inspire the club to great achievement in the coming year.

Other officers installed by the district governor were: Conrad Knight and Dr. Vinton Goodnight, vice presidents; Gerald Cecil, secretary-treasurer, and the following directors: James Askren, Clifford Barr, Clinton Carson, Doyle Funnell, Wallace McCown, Dr. Donald Proctor, Russell Ream, James Schumaker and Paul Walters.

He gave the pledge of office to all of the officers and directors, then the pledge of responsibility to the club to the remaining members.

The meeting was opened by the retiring president, Dr. Donald Proctor, with invocation by Phil Burford. Singing was led by Gerald Cecil with Miss Lillian Fox at the piano.

At the close of the installation Dr. Proctor took the president's pin from his lapel and placed it in the lapel of the incoming president, and after which Allgaier placed the past president's emblem on Dr. Proctor's lapel. Dr. Proctor was then presented with an Optimist plaque for his outstanding service as the first president of the Breakfast Optimist Club with Dr. Vinton Goodnight making the presentation.

A new member, John Mais, was installed by Governor Ostergard, who told him that becoming a member of the Optimist Club is an adventure in friendship with his fellowmen.

Guests introduced were Earl Finley, guest of John Mais, John Herbst and Judge Dimmit Hoffman of the Optimist Noon Club.

The meeting was closed by the new president.

Budget

The chairman said the committee was trying to budget appropriations within the revenue that the city could expect. The general fund based on an assessed valuation of over $30,600,000 and the one dollar general revenue tax levy could be expected to produce some $306,000, or about 47 per cent of all revenues.

Noting that about 50 per cent of expenditures will be for salary and wages, and that the number for $148,000 and was granted for this size city, Smith said Sedalia was at a stalemate until additional revenues could be found.

The chairman expects the tax levy will be $1.59 on the $100 of assessed valuation. This is an increase of five cents, and the boost is accountable to the fact that Sedalians voted the urban highway bonds last fall.

Find Midget Jap Sub Near Pearl Harbor

HONOLULU (AP) — The Navy is investigating a Japanese midget submarine, believed to have been part of the force that attacked Pearl Harbor Dec. 7, 1941.

Navy divers accidentally discovered the submarine June 13, about a mile outside the harbor. The 80-foot craft, lying upright on a bed of coral, was heavily encrusted with marine growth in about 70 feet of water.

The chairman expects the tax levy will be $1.59 on the $100 of assessed valuation. This is an increase of five cents, and the boost is accountable to the fact that Sedalians voted the urban highway bonds last fall.

Vote Method Change May Be First Test

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The first big test of strength between supporters of Sens. John F. Kennedy and Lyndon B. Johnson at the Democratic National Convention may involve a seemingly innocent proposal to change voting procedures.

Some of the most important backstage maneuvering going on today at convention headquarters centered around this question: which states should be permitted to switch their votes first during the first ballot at next week's nominating sessions?

The outcome of this seemingly minor issue—which may come to a vote by the full convention before next week's balloting—is that it could produce a crucial test.

This could pit the Kennedy forces, who hope switch votes will start a bandwagon move, against those of Johnson, trying to consolidate the anti-Kennedy sentiment.

Traditionally, the permanent chairman of the convention has recognized at random those state delegations which have chosen to change the way their votes were recorded on a particular roll call.

However, Gov. LeRoy Collins of Florida has suggested that, as this year's permanent chairman, he would do well to follow some systematic method in recognizing delegations.

Collins has said this would eliminate the possibility that he might be accused of bias if he recognized a state which started a bandwagon movement by shifting its votes.

Democratic National Chairman Paul Butler said "I think it would be sensible and fair" to adopt a new procedure—perhaps recognizing the delegations alphabetically.

However, Butler said Collins would be bound by the traditional method unless the rules committee recommended, and the convention adopted, a new system.

It was learned that Collins does not believe a rules change is required. The Florida governor believes that, unless the convention votes otherwise, he is free to follow his own best judgment.

Hollywood Brush Fire Threatens Big Homes

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A stubborn brush fire threatened expensive homes in the Hollywood Hills before it was brought under control Tuesday.

The 40-acre fire burned within a few feet of several homes. Flames as high as 30 feet were fought by nearly 150 firemen.

Malone Files for Seat

CARSON CITY, Nev. (AP)—Former U.S. Sen. George (Molly) Malone, 70, filed his Republican candidacy for Nevada's single seat in the U.S. House of Representatives.

Malone, who lost his bid for a third term in the Senate to Democrat Howard Cannon of Las Vegas in 1958, said the House office "is not a step down in my mind."

His filing Tuesday made it a three-way race for the Republican nomination against the incumbent Democratic candidate, Walter Baring.

3 Wise Demo Men Named by Symington

HARRISBURG, Pa. (AP)—"Along with Harry Truman and Sam Rayburn, I consider Gov. (David) Lawrence one of the three wise men of the Democratic party," said Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.), who is seeking the presidential nomination.

"Only three?" inquired the Pennsylvania governor, who is chairman of the state's 81-vote convention delegation.

"If you want to put me in the manger, I'll go there," answered Symington with a smile. "But I'm a little short of frankincense and myrrh."

The exchange took place Tuesday as Symington and Lawrence appeared together during an interview. Symington made an unexpected trip to Harrisburg to visit his wife's stepfather who is hospitalized.

Cook Stabs Ex-wife As She Lies in Bed

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—An unemployed cook used a butcher knife to kill his former wife as she lay in a St. Joseph hospital bed, police said.

Charles Clifford Porter, 44, was seized by two orderlies Tuesday after he stabbed the mother of four in the chest, left arm and shoulders.

Another patient ran screaming from the semi-private room she had shared with Ella Porter, 26, who was under treatment for a nervous condition.

Police said the Porters had numerous spats in the past and that a divorce had become final recently. Porter was charged with murder.

Gavin Warns Country Of Khrushchev Plans

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The World War II commander of the 82nd Airborne Division told its veterans "the next few years will be critical for America. In fact, we may have only one."

Gen. James M. Gavin (ret.) said, "When Mr. Khrushchev said 'We will bury you,' he meant it."

After Gavin's address Tuesday at the 82nd Airborne Division Assn.'s convention, he left for Huntsville, Ala., to consult with Dr. Wehrner Von Braun of the missile program.

The association picked Indianapolis for its 1961 convention and named Sgt. Maj. Douglas R. Swanson of Chicago and the 307th Engineers as trooper of the year. The 307th is part of the 82nd Division.

Facts of Life Pretty Grim on Movie Sets

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Things haven't been too funny on the set of "The Facts of Life," a Hollywood comedy.

Lucille Ball fell into a boat Friday during filming of a scene with Bob Hope, and suffered a black eye, scrapes and bruises. She was hospitalized.

Then supporting actor Don DeFore hurt his back while doing a slapstick scene—aggravating an old injury. He went to another hospital.

Mel Frank, producer-director of the film, broke an ankle while golfing. He was back at work Tuesday—on crutches.

David Golding, the movie's publicity man, is down with the mumps. Hope is keeping his fingers crossed.

DRINKING DRIVERS DIE—Grimly humorous cartoon traces an all-too-familiar pattern for many of America's drivers. For example, alcohol was a factor in three-fourths of the single-vehicle fatal accidents studied in an eight-year project of the New York Driver Research Center. Much difficult summer driving lies ahead. Heat, congestion and fatigue are enough. Don't add alcohol. Cartoon courtesy of "The Dishonor Roll."

'Baby Doll' Ain't Legal, Says Judge

LOS ANGELES (AP)—If dancer Lea Delene Anscott wants to call herself Baby Doll, she'll have to do it without legal sanction.

She asked Superior Court Tuesday for an official change of name. The court rejected her petition as capricious.

Autos Are Problem, Not More Students

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—Finding room for an expected 30,000 students by 1970 doesn't worry University of Texas authorities as much as finding more teachers and parking spaces.

Dr. L. D. Haskew, university vice president for developmental services, made the observation Tuesday.

"We can handle 40,000 students on our campus now," Haskew commented, "but we can't handle the automobiles of 40,000 students," he said.

The "Show of Combat"

Virtually all of the key politicians know right now what they are going to do at the Democratic National Convention in Los Angeles.

A sense of uncertainty has been simmering as an aftermath of Harry Truman's stirring the pot last week, but this is all a bit of the showmanship that goes along with the act in which everybody wants to participate.

Thus the "show of combat" now being demonstrated on the eve of this great political circus. The Democrats do not want things to appear cut and dried as Truman indicated when he suggested Kennedy had bought all the tickets to the exhibition.

Naturally the Democrats want to draw a sharp contrast between their deliberations and what they regard as the probable "rubber stamp" nomination of Nixon in Chicago.

Furthermore the key figures do not relish going to L.A. or anywhere else in the role of mere tally clerks reporting the delegate count in their states.

For many, the national convention is their one big moment of glory, their one time in every four years when they can perform on the national scene with a vast television audience watching. The value of this to their self-esteem and their future election prospects is something they do not underestimate.

We can be sure that when they are satisfied on all these counts, these men will make their moves. The specific order and pattern of events is not predictable. The range of possibilities is always wide.

But if the fundamental outcome is already clearly seen in advance by most leaders, as has frequently been true in the past, the exact pattern is a matter not of great consequence but simply of interest. It becomes just a matter of "how and when."

The concern today is to make sure it is not open-and-shut and too soon.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Money Makes Political Wheels Spin

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Money, whether it be Republican or Democratic, talks big in American politics. Without the benefit of a tremendous fortune, Senator Kennedy, with all his charm and all his drive, would not be Democratic front-runner for president today. He would be in the same boat as the Minnesota druggist's son, Hubert Humphrey—out of the race and trying to pay off his campaign debts.

Therefore, it's just as important to look at the money behind Kennedy as it is to look at the money behind Sen. Lyndon Johnson, as this column did yesterday.

The Kennedy fortune rates well ahead of the Rockefellers, the Henry Fords, the Pews, the Harrimans and the Whitneys. Fortune Magazine lists Joseph Patrick Kennedy, father of the Senator, twelfth among America's ruling families with a fortune estimated between $200 and $400 millions.

Old Joe, now 72, made his money in theatres, Scotch Whisky, real estate and by operating some of the best-rigged pools on Wall Street.

Joe got his real start in life, however, when he married the daughter of the Mayer, John F. ("Honey") Fitzgerald, for whom the man who may be next president of the United States is named. A lot has been written about how Joe Kennedy, son of a Boston saloon-owner, rose to become wealthier than the Fords and the Rockefellers and most biographers state that he made $5,000 in the summer operating sight-seeing buses.

This writer has known Joe Kennedy for 28 years, ever since he became Chairman of the Securities and Exchange Commission, and has reported that Joe has done many fine things for his government. The best was in policing Wall Street where he cracked down hard on the very same wolves he knew when he was operating pools to trap unwary suckers. The worst job he did was as Ambassador to London where he was soft on Hitler.

But the best thing Joe has done — in or out of government — has been to train two sons in the spirit of public service. Some rich men's sons turn out to be playboys, but Joe has raised two boys — John and Bobby — who have worked hard for their country, plus another who died for his country and a fourth who is too young to be judged.

Also Joe is extremely close to his family. The man about whom Harry Truman has said, "It's not the Pope who worries me, it's the pop," doesn't hesitate a minute to throw his weight into the backstage political arena — in phoning Gov. Pat Brown of California to line up delegates for Jack, in demanding retractions from network TV executives who he thinks have been unfair to Jack, or getting on the long-distance phone so often to West Virginia editors during that key primary that he made a nuisance of himself. And when his son-in-law Peter Lawford, who played the leading role in "The Thin Man" was worried about his future, old Joe picked up the phone to tell M-G-M's Joe Vogel what to do about it.

The closeness of the father-son relationship is illustrated by the trip Jack took to the French Riviera immediately after the Democratic convention in 1956 to report on his defeat for the Vice Presidency. Mrs. Kennedy was then expecting a baby and suffered her second miscarriage while the Senator was off on a Mediterranean boat cruise. He did not learn of this for some time.

Joe Kennedy was one of the biggest Roosevelt financial backers during the New Deal and a campaigner against prohibition. Came the end of prohibition, he copped one of the biggest prizes — the American distributorship for Haig and Haig. This is why Mr. Truman once told ex-Sen. Bill Benton of Connecticut: "Don't drink scotch, drink bourbon. Every time you drink scotch it's money in Joe Kennedy's pocket."

Joe is now out of the whiskey business. He sold out to Joe Reinfeld who once terrorized the New Jersey coast in the old bootlegging days and was indicted for the 1925 murder

Guest Editorial

WASHINGTON POST: Chocolate Fatigue.—To the substantial historical evidence that "there'll always be an England" we may add a new exploit of the indomitable British spirit. Confronted recently with the problem of chocolate marshmallow cookies that, when served as repasts to airline passengers exploded at altitudes above 5,000 feet, British European Airways has just issued this announcement: "A marshmallow biscuit has been devised with a porous base, which enables interior and exterior pressures to equalize and so prevents chocolate fatigue on the outer skin."

Now if that doesn't restore your faith in the technological supremacy of the free world, we don't know what will.

of Louis La Fera, a federal agent. So if Mr. Truman's friends drink Haig and Haig today it no longer benefits Joe Kennedy nor indirectly helps the campaign coffers of his son Jack.

Think It Through

By E. F. HUTTON

PASTERNAK — Russia's greatest writer died recently. But the Russian people were not told. No Soviet newspaper, radio or T.V. dared mention his passing.

Pasternak, author of the famous novel, DR. ZHIVAGO, was awarded the Nobel prize for literature in 1958. But because the book made some criticism of Communism, it was banned in Russia. Facing exile, imprisonment or death, Pasternak felt forced to decline the prize.

Now he is dead. His sister in England, and his publisher in Rome could not attend his funeral for lack of a Soviet visa.

Thus the relentless Soviet Police State hounded a dead man to his grave.

Poor Pasternak! Begging not to be exiled, he had written Khrushchev, "To go beyond the frontier of my own land to me is equal to death." Thus spoke a patriot! It meant more to him to spend his remaining years in his humble home in "Mother Russia" than the immense honor of the Nobel prize, plus its cash award of 41,500 $'s.

Do we Americans grasp the remorseless power of the new czars of Russia who demand that their people see nothing, hear nothing and know nothing critical of the dread government under which they are obliged to live?

What a grisly chill would come over us if we heard "through the grapevine" that a famous citizen had died, but that an American Khrushchev had ordered our newspapers and broadcasting stations to make no mention of the fact!

Aisle Seat 35 Years

The dean of drama critics, Brooks Atkinson of the New York Times, after 35 years, is giving up his aisle seat.

Drama critics, said Mr. Atkinson, have some influence on the life and death of a Broadway hit, but no one knows just what it is. "One thing I know. The critics like a lot more shows than the public does."

It is a fact that the cast of a Broadway show does not rest until the papers come out with the critics' report, after the opening night. Brooks Atkinson approval usually meant that the show was pretty sure of a long run.

His weakness, if he had any, was to be too kind. He viewed the actors as human beings with good intent. However if their performances were incompetent or gross, he made no scruples about letting them have it.

Naturally, after becoming the No. 1 judge of Broadway in the view of players, producers and spectators, he was queried about his favorites. "I was always for Eugene O'Neill," he said, "and I was nuts about Clifford Odets at the beginning. Anything by George Kauffman and Marc Connelly I thought great. I think Tennessee Williams is our finest writer, although he sometimes gives me the horrors."

It may be true, as Atkinson says, that the critics like more shows than the public, but it is also true that the public likes many shows that are panned by the critics.

Serious Reading

"A home library should be a collection of books of all sizes, colors and qualities, read, used and beloved because of a strong bond between each book and its owner," said Miss Marjorie Doud, a retiring librarian in St. Louis, Missouri.

Miss Doud believes that there is a trend toward more serious reading in this country despite modern pressures which do not encourage deep and lasting education. She thinks, after 50 years as a librarian, that a young reader should start with something in which he is interested and then gradually broaden his scope.

The local library in most places is more than a place to lend and store books. Reading programs and schedules can be provided for new and young readers. Mothers can be guided in reading habits for their children.

Lack of personnel is the greatest problem of most libraries, but many innovations have been added, such as microfilm, phonograph records, bookmobiles and teen-age reading rooms.

With the stress upon remedial reading in the schools and the dedication of librarians like Miss Doud, there is hope that America will find ever greater pleasure and wisdom between the covers of good books.

The Doctor Says

You Are Key Man In Fight On Industry Cancer Perils

By Harold Thomas Human, M.D.

I want to speak now of what you can do to prevent cancer from on-the-job exposure to cancer-producing substances (carcinogens) of one sort or another.

While most workers in organized industries are given the protection of instructions and regulations issued by governmental agencies, employers and union representatives, those who work alone or in small groups must necessarily act as their own guardians.

Included in this latter group are farmers, fishermen, crews of small vessels, day laborers, nurses, X-ray technicians, hospital personnel, medical students, internists, physicians, dentists and scientists or laboratory workers exposed to radiation.

Included in the list of common carcinogens that threaten workers, often after a lapse of many years and even decades, are prolonged or excessive exposures to sunlight, wind, heat, friction, crude mineral or paraffin oils, shale oil, tar, soot, smog, asphalt, coal tar derivatives (anthracenes) coal dust, asbestos or silicon dust, aniline dyes, benzol, benzol derivatives and radio-activity.

As a result of these exposures, some (but not all) may develop cancers of the skin, hands, bronchi, lungs, bone marrow, bone, bladder and other organs.

Fortunately for all concerned, the worker in many industries is protected by directives issued through employers, union officials and governmental agents, usually operating in the closest harmony.

Let me give some examples of how these groups, often with conflicting viewpoints in other fields of endeavor, join forces in the battle against malignancy.

What's Necessary to Be Done

Youth Surges Into The Political Arena of 1960

By ROBERT E. HENNESSEE
Of Our Washington Bureau
WASHINGTON — This is about youth.

ITEM—A 23-year-old "boy" directed the Democratic campaign in North Dakota which last week robbed the Republicans of a U.S. Senate seat.

ITEM—It was a group of young people in New York City, and not the oldsters—Roosevelt, Lehman and Finletter—who beat the Tammany pros at their own game last month and set the stage for what probably will be an entirely new leadership for the Democratic Party in New York.

ITEM—A 31-year-old Midwest-erner named Ted Sorensen is perhaps the chief source of the genius in the Kennedy presidential campaign.

ITEM—The new governor-elect of North Carolina, Terry Sanford started with a group of young people at the University at Chapel Hill and built a tremendous campaign.

ITEM—The young staffs of the senators and congressmen give the Senate and House Office Buildings the air of a college campus and some of the freshmen congressmen themselves are so young it's hard to tell them from the page boys.

When a subsidiary of Standard Oil Co. of New Jersey learned that one of its products contained a substance structurally related to a known carcinogen, its directors informed workers exposed to the material.

They explained how to avoid contacts, put special marking on pipes and units that contained the material, provided protective equipment for workers who had to work on these pipes and units or with the material, instructed their workers to scrub thoroughly after unavoidable contacts and installed lockers and showers so that the men might bathe and change their clothes before returning home.

When the attention of governmental agencies was drawn to the increased frequency of cancer in workers employed in a refinery that processed a petroleum wax, a team of investigators was assigned to make an investigation.

Observing the work habits of the men, members of the team noted that what was called "slack wax" saturated the burlap bags that workers tied around their waists to protect their trousers when they leaned across a side rail to clean the plates of the press.

With this observation, the problems of cancer-production and cancer-prevention were effectively solved.

Perhaps these few illustrations will serve to illustrate how very much can be done by individuals, governmental and private agencies and the leaders of industry and labor in the fight against cancer.

In each instance, you will note that the key person is not the fund-raiser, the public relations counsel or even the white-coated scientist. It's the man whose teeth you brush each morning.

Such examples are legion. Lyndon Johnson, for instance, sent a couple of boys up to Detroit to operate his Michigan campaign. Men and women in their 20s and 30s dominate the staff of Richard Nixon.

Why so much youth?

There probably are many reasons, but two seem to stand out.

Most of our present administration is old and there probably is a general national inclination to turn to younger men to see if they maybe "can do something." Such an attitude is fertile ground in which the very young can emerge with the "not old."

The second prominent reason is perhaps best dramatized by the comments of an old congressman with whom I occasionally muse and seek advice.

It was right after the Democratic primary in West Virginia, which Kennedy won so resoundingly. I was telling him how the Kennedy forces telephoned every home in West Virginia to ask for votes and to offer a ride to the polls on election day.

The old congressman was amazed at such a feat. But he gently replied:

"That's youth, isn't it?" Later

Odds and Ends
By News Staff

Changing trees in September—champagne in January—showers in April—fireworks on the Fourth of July. It's a perennial pattern with which everyone is familiar.

But once in a great while this pattern is violated, or slightly altered. Such was the case when a group of children, in rebellion against the din of firecrackers and skyrockets, threw snowballs the afternoon of the Fourth.

This was not the result of a quirk of nature, but rather of a little foresight on the part of Judy Mae Prall, 11, 638 East Ninth. Judy and her sister, Kathy Sue, 3, stored some of last winter's snowballs in the home freezer for use on a summer day.

The Fourth of July seemed appropriate enough. So they invited some of their friends, and all joined in with a brief but active celebration. The July sun soon cleared the sky of the white flurry, and the battle ended with only a few splashes of water serving as a reminder of the engagement.

Money Is On Parties' Minds At 1960 Convention Time

By Peter Edson
Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON — Republican National Committee claims the Democrats have all the millions running for president this year.

Democrats claim in rebuttal that Republicans have all the money with which to campaign. And they're both right.

Senators Jack Kennedy and Stuart Symington are admittedly both millionaires. Sen. Lyndon Johnson may not be one in his own right, but his wife and her family own lucrative television and ranch properties. And Adlai Stevenson is in the millionaire class.

But the other half of this story is that the Democratic National Committee itself is barely solvent.

There will be a $100-a-plate dinner at the Los Angeles Beverly Hilton the Sunday evening before the Democratic convention opens. The banquet room has a capacity of 2,500 and it has been oversold.

With that quarter of a million gross, Paul Butler, Democratic chairman hopes to be able to announce when he resigns at the end of the convention that the party is out of the red for the first time in seven years with all '52 and '56 debts paid. It may even have a surplus of $50,000 or so.

But that's no money for launching national campaigns to elect a Democratic president and Congress. So the party will have to get out and rustle some dough.

Present law puts a three-million-dollar limit on the amount any political organization can spend on a campaign.

But that amount is cut down to two million for the Democratic National Committee by the fact that it has already raised a million dollars this year to pay off its debts.

Reports filed with the clerk of the House show that the Democrats, up to June 1, 1960 received $984,251.41 in contributions and pledges.

Expenses in this period were $727,507.42 and they will be well over the million dollar mark when the convention opens.

The Los Angeles host committee is financing the convention itself by contributions and a sale of a souvenir book.

National committee must start from scratch to finance its 1960 campaign. It expects to receive $500,000 from "Dollars for Democrats" drives and from sustaining party membership dues. It will receive another $500,000 from the states.

Beyond that, finance chairman Matthew H. McCloskey or whoever succeeds him will have to solicit from the party faithful.

Funds for Senate and House campaign committees must also be raised. So it's touch and go to break even—or go into debt again as the party has in the last two national campaigns.

The contrast between this and the GOP financial picture is marked. GOP National Committee's report to the clerk of the House shows 1960 receipts of $1,412,682.71 and expenditures of $1,008,398.01 up to June 1. That's a surplus of over $400,000 on top of a 40,000 surplus for 1959 operations.

But this doesn't begin to tell the story. The $100-a-plate "Dinner With Ike," held in 83 cities connected by closed circuit TV, last January grossed over five million dollars. Some reports have put the gross at 7½ million, but this larger figure is denied by GOP.

Of the five million dollars, one million covered food and arrangements. Two million went to the national and Congressional committees. The remaining two million were retained by state and local organizations that put on the dinners.

Republican headquarters complains that it is "a little behind" where it hoped to be on contributions this year. But it has its $500,000 share of national convention costs financed, on top of Chicago's $400,000 contribution.

The Republicans don't have any debts, which gives them a head start. Spencer Olin, GOP finance chairman for the last several years, will probably continue in that post. National chairman Thruston B. Morton is expected to stay on—unless he is nominated for the vice presidency.

Complaints Load Child With Debt He Can Never Pay

By Mrs. Muriel Lawrence

The birthday that made Miss M. 5 years old brought her new shoes, toys, a slice of cake masted with a little pink candle.

But it is not these gifts that Miss M. remembers. What remains to her of that birthday is the sound of her mother's voice saying:

"I was a very sick woman five years ago today. Yes, this time five years ago today they didn't know if I was going to live."

Miss M. remembers the words because her mother repeated them, with variations on every succeeding birthday. Always, on each anniversary of her oldest child's birth, Mrs. M. glancing at the clock would say:

"You weren't born until nearly midnight. Oh yes, at 4 o'clock 10 years ago today, I was a very sick woman. I just wanted the doctor to let me die."

On these occasions Miss M. did not reply, "I'm so sorry I nearly killed you, Mama."

Unable to make any amends for the pain she had inflicted, she could not let herself become fully aware of the accusation in Mama's words. And so defended herself against it by half forgetting it.

But the painful sense of apology aroused by the accusation is still with her.

Today, a shy, faded woman, Miss M. is always willing to work late without overtime pay. She has never married because her pervasive feeling of painful apology has made it difficult to believe men when they said they wanted her.

If her brothers and sisters want a favor done, Miss M. is always the one they call on. Her eagerness to serve is much prized by other people.

But this eagerness to serve is not morality in Miss M. It is her unknown need to make amends to the world for getting herself born.

Mothers who complain at the pain of childbirth to children need to be told what they are really doing.

When we tell a child what it cost to bring him into the world, we are presenting him with a bill he can never pay.

By making him our permanent debtor for his life, we make it impossible for him to believe that it belongs to him. So he will react either by asserting his right to it in defiance and hate—or never assert any claim to it at all.

We make him pay for the pain we suffered in bringing him into the world by making it impossible for him to enjoy the world.

Rome's Fall Fashion Show In One Place

ROME (AP) — Rome's fall fashion show opens next Tuesday in the Palazzo Venezia and for the first time the designers will show their collections under one roof.

In the past, the 11 members that make up the Roman "alta moda" couture houses showed their collections separately and at different locations, making it difficult for out-of-town buyers and fashion writers.

Irene Brin, a pint-sized energetic writer for Italian, Spanish and American magazines, was instrumental in getting the fashion houses together.

Miss Brin, with the Roman couturiers, worked out a compact, co-ordinated package at the Palazzo Venezia. The show will last three days.

On July 12 boutique and accessory collections will be on view in the mosaic area that used to be the private office of Benito Mussolini.

The actual showings will begin the following day in an adjoining room, massive with fresco and hung with a mammoth chandelier.

The last day will bring out the big guns: Fontana, Gattinoni, De Luca, Eleonora Garnett, and Baratta.

Rumors are rampant that the unfitted-fit is the big news in Italian fashion, and color, long a mainstay, is brighter than ever.

Fernanda Gattinoni and Eleonora Garnett are the feminists of the Roman group. Floaty chiffon, one of Garnett's favorite medium, is in every collection she makes. Gattinoni, famous for embroidery, always presents glittering examples of jeweling on the most elaborate fabrics.

Gattinoni is also working on a new skirt she says is "a slight triangle with a lot of shape and a little stiffening." She claims it will be becoming to all figures.

De Luca, who has done tricky sleeves before, is planning to do something revolutionary with the arm. "I have created a new proportion that widens the top and skimps the skirt."

Concession Stand Under Construction

Work was started on a concession stand and storage building at the baseball field in Knob Noster. Members of the Knob Noster Chamber of Commerce are sponsoring the project.

Democrats Face Dry Convention At Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Democrats, who take pride in belonging to the party that repealed prohibition, are faced with a crisis of val proportions.

As convivial a bunch of two-fisted drinkers as any other political party, the Democrats won't be able to buy, sell or drink liquor in the Sports Arena, site of the 1960 convention.

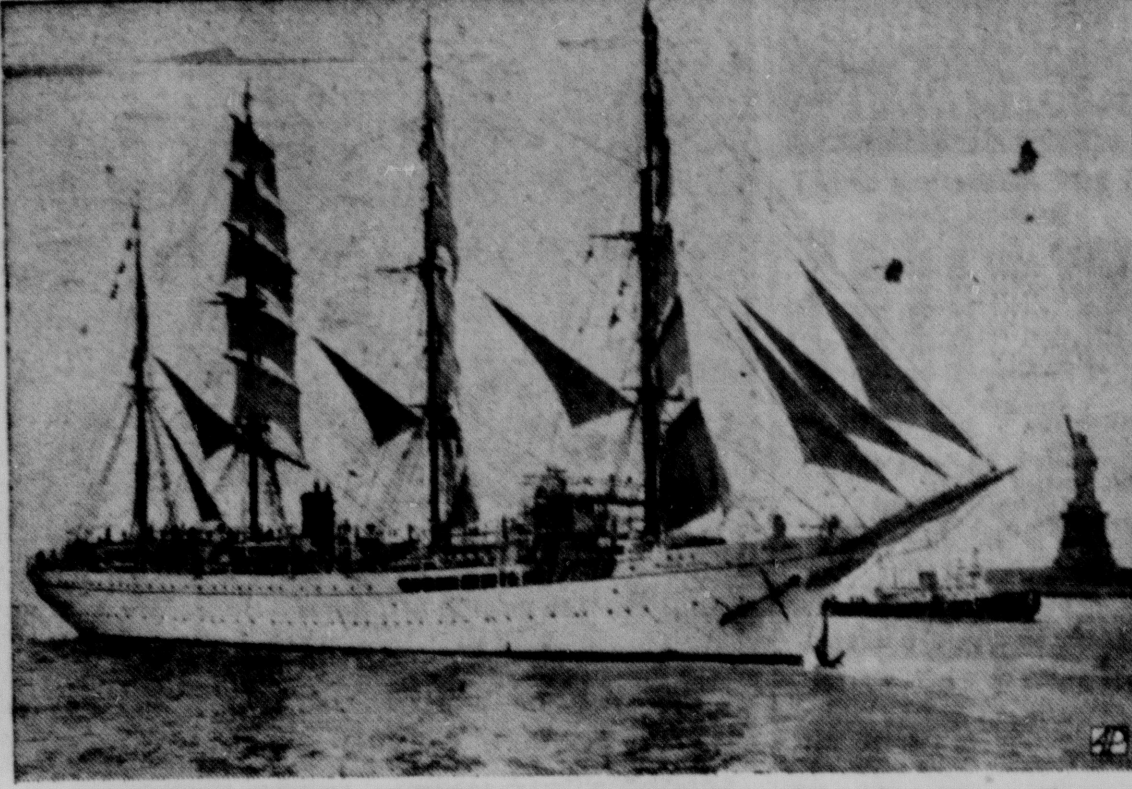

And when they go next door to the huge outdoor Coliseum for the final session and the Democratic presidential nominee's acceptance speech, it will be a time for sober reflection. The same rules apply there, too.

A raft of restrictions imposed by the state-county-city commission that runs the Sports Arena and the Coliseum won't even permit the party of the bourbons to buy a beer on the premises.

"No one around here is old enough to remember a similar ban," a spokesman at convention headquarters noted dryly. He added: "It looks like the bar across the street is going to do a helluva business."

The Democratic party isn't seeking a reputation as guardian of guzzlers, he noted, but a cool brew or two has been known to allay frayed tempers in the heat of a sizzling convention.

James E. Doyle, executive director of the Adlai Stevenson campaign committee, commented "Liquor is not considered a necessity in the Democratic convention hall. Unlike the oratory at the Republican convention, the Democrats' speeches are never dry."

For those who need some form of liquid refreshment, there will be plenty of healthful California orange juice, soda pop, milk, iced tea and coffee.

That's the promise of Carolyn Latimer, coordinating secretary for the various California host committees charged with keeping the delegates happy.

Four Kansas Citians

Will Talk Deal On Buying A's

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Four Kansas Citians, backed by two million dollars, headed for Chicago Wednesday to start dickering on purchase of the Kansas City Athletics.

They are Ernest Mehl, Kansas City Star sports editor; City Councilman Sal Capra; Earl Smith, Chamber of Commerce representative, and Byron Spencer, lawyer and business executive.

They will discuss the deal in the Chicago office of Earl Vollers, secretary of the Athletics. Vollers also is attorney for the estate of the late Arnold Johnson, president and principal owner of the A's.

The two million dollars is earnest money. The delegation will ask Vollers to put a price on the club. The group also wants to see operating statements of the club since it was moved to Kansas City in 1955.

In Chicago, Vollers said Tuesday there was no rush to sell either the 52 per cent held by Johnson's estate or the minority shares.

"There will by no means be a distress sale of the Athletics," Vollers said. "There is plenty of cash on hand to meet all expenses and taxes."

Several other groups reportedly are interested in buying the Athletics.

The Kansas City Chamber of Commerce has started a drive to raise enough money to buy the club and make sure it stays in Kansas City.

Beman, Estrada Lead Parade In Trans-Miss. Golf

WICHITA (AP) — Dean Beman and Juan Estrada will lead a parade of title holders into the 57th Trans - Mississippi Golf Tournament at Wichita next week.

Beman beat out Bob Cochran of St. Louis for the British amateur crown recently and Estrada is the former North Texas State star who holds the Mexican amateur championship. Beman won the Trans-Miss last year.

Cochran will be on hand to battle him again. Another entrant is Dick Crawford, two-time NCAA champion at Houston University.

The qualifying rounds for match play in three tournament divisions start Monday. The senior division, for golfers 55 or older, starts with a qualifying round on Thursday. It is 54 holes of medal play.

Bob Goldwater of Phoenix, Ariz., will defend his seniors title. Bud Wilkinson, Oklahoma football coach, will play in the junior-senior flight for ages 45 to 55.

Kansas golfers listed among the entries include Bobby Dare of Wellington, Gene Zussman of Goodland, John Marino of Salina, Jack House of Overland Park, Dave Dennis of Independence and Johnny Stevens, Kim Corbin and Johnny Vickers of Wichita.

Stevens won the Kansas Amateur this year and House won the Missouri Amateur. Corbin was runner-up to Stevens and Vickers beat Dare for the 1959 Kansas title.

The tournament is at Wichita Country Club, where par is 70 on a 6,615-yard layout.

Palmer's Earnings On Top by $31,100

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — Arnold Palmer of Ligonier, Pa. didn't draw a paycheck last week, but his $66,600 income so far this year would make many a corporation president envious.

So far, Palmer has earned $31,100 more than second place Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla. Finsterwald has made $35,500.

Ken Venturi of Palo Alto, Calif., holds third place in the money list with $30,500.

Mike Souchak of Durham, N.C., climbed into fourth place with $29,400 to replace Jerry Barber of Los Angeles, who dropped into fifth place with a total of $29,300.

Bucs Fall Into Trend

Starting Pitchers In Relief Quite Popular In National

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

The way the top clubs are using starting pitchers in relief these days, you'd think it was the final week of the pennant race in the National League.

Even the first-place Pittsburgh Pirates have fallen into the trend, calling on Bob Friend for a save Tuesday night as they beat Milwaukee 5-4 in 10 innings on Rocky Nelson's second home run for a 4½-game bulge over the second-place Braves.

The Pirates, shut out for eight innings, hadn't called on a starting pitcher for relief all season. But it's nothing new among the Braves or the third-place San Francisco Giants.

Mike McCormick, making his fourth appearance in six days, was no match for southpaw Johnny Podres, who allowed just four hits as Los Angeles whipped the Giants 8-0. St. Louis defeated Chicago's Cubs 3-2, and Philadelphia beat Cincinnati 2-0 behind a four-hitter by Robin Roberts.

In the American League, Washington trimmed New York's lead over idle Cleveland to one game by beating the Yankees 5-3 in 10 innings. Second-place Baltimore moved within two games of the top with a 9-4 victory at Boston in the only other game scheduled.

The Pirates cracked Carl Willey's six-hit shutout with three runs in the ninth on Nelson's leadoff homer, a walk and Don Hoak's home run. The Braves then almost won it in their ninth. Del Crandall tied it with a bases-loaded single, but when Eddie Haas tried to score from second on the hit, he was nailed at the plate by Bob Skinner's peg from right field.

Nelson finally beat Joey Jay (2-5) with his fifth home run of the season, coming after Skinner singled past second baseman Al Dark with two out. Friend saved it for Paul Giel (2-0), getting the last two outs.

Podres (8-6) struck out seven and walked two while beating the Giants. He ended Willie Mays' hitting streak at 19 games. McCormick (9-5) was beaten in the fourth when Junior Gilliam doubled, went to third on an error and scored on a wild pitch—the Dodgers' first run off the Giel lefty in 22 innings this year.

An eighth-inning triple by Bill White broke a 2-2 tie for the Cards as they knocked off Don Cardwell (4-6) in their first relief match since he beat them with a no-hitter May 15. Lindy McDaniel (4-3), the loser in the no-hitter won it with 2-3 innings of one hit relief.

Roberts (5-7) walked one, struck out one and retired 19 in order at one stretch while winning his fourth in a row. The Phils handed Don Newcombe (3-6) his fifth straight loss when they junked his one-hit shutout in the sixth on Ruben Amaro's single and a double by ex-Red Tony Gonzalez.

Evaluates Grand Slam By Palmer

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (AP)

—Gene Sarazen, the old master who has spanned four decades of championship golf, said today that a grand slam by Arnold Palmer would be superior even to that of the legendary Bobby Jones.

Palmer with the American Open and Masters titles already under his belt, today started shooting for the third big one—the 72-hole British Open championship.

"If Palmer can win this one," said Sarazen, 58, "then he can go home and try to complete the slam by winning the American PGA."

"I reckon such a slam would be better than that of Jones in 1930."

That was the year Jones won the American Amateur and Open and British Amateur and Open.

Sarazen said there were many more people playing golf these days, the equipment was better, the competition was stiffer and there had been a terrific general improvement in the game.

"That's why I think Palmer is shooting for the greatest grand slam in golfing history," he said.

The old master said that when he won both the British and American Opens in 1932 it was worth about $10,000.

"I think a grand slam by Palmer would be worth something like $250,000 to him," Sarazen said.

Sarazen led the American qualifiers and said he was hitting the ball so well "I'm fearful I might get into the last 50 for the 36 holes Friday. The old legs won't stand that."

A total of 74 players—the lowest since the present qualifying play was introduced after World War II—went out today.

Palmer, Sarazen, Bill Johnson, from Provo, Utah, and Jack Isaacs, Langley Field, Va., were the only American survivors from an original entry of 21.

Les Griffin Takes Flag Day Medalist Honors in Tourney

Les Griffin took medalist honors at the Flag Day Handicap Tournament July 4 at the Sedalia Country Club. Griffin paced a field of 40 golfers with a 71 for 18 holes. He had a handicap of five strokes which gave him a net total of 66.

Bernard Stanfield toured the two rounds in 74 strokes, placing him second. He had a four-stroke handicap which brought his total down to 70.

Vic VanDyne covered the course with a 73. But a two-stroke handicap gave him a net total of 71, giving him third place.

Qualifying rounds for the Club Championship and other flights will be Saturday and Sunday, July 9 and 10.

Senators Shame Leaders

Pennant No Cinch For Slumping Yanks

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer

Maybe this isn't going to be such a cinch pennant for the New York Yankees after all. Not when they use three starting pitchers in one game and get beat. And not when they lose two in a row for the first time in more than a month, but find their American League lead whittled to one game.

That's what happened when they were held to three hits by Pete Ramos and Chuck Stobbs, blew a 3-0 lead and lost 5-3 in 10 innings at Washington Tuesday night. Art Ditmar, who had won five straight, was tagged for the loss after following Ralph Terry and Bob Turley to the mound.

After dropping only eight of 30 games in June, the Yanks now have lost two of five in July. That's not exactly a total collapse, but both losses were to the sixth-place Senators and they now lead second-place Cleveland, idle Tuesday, by just one game.

They're also just two lengths ahead of the third-place Baltimore Orioles—who rapped Boston 9-4 in the only other game scheduled in the AL—going into the opener of a two-game set at Baltimore tonight. The Indians play six games in five days with Chicago's fourth-place White Sox, beginning with a two-game series at Cleveland.

In the National League, Pittsburgh regained a 4½-game bulge by beating second-place Milwaukee 5-4 in 10 innings after being shut out for eight frames. The Los Angeles Dodgers whipped third-place San Francisco 8-0 behind Johnny Podres' four-hit pitching. St. Louis trimmed the Chicago Cubs 3-2, and Philadelphia beat Cincinnati 2-0 as Robin Roberts came up with a four-hit

A two-out single by Reno Bertoia and Bob Allison's follow-up 10th homer beat the Yankees and Ditmar (7-4). The Senators scored in each of the last four frames, tying it on Faye Throneberry's pinch single off Turley with two out in the ninth.

Stobbs (6-2), the long-abused southpaw, won his third in a row with two perfect innings of relief for his 99th victory in a 14-year career. Only 31, he has lost 122 in that span and hasn't had a winning season since 1953.

All of the Yank hits came in the first five innings off Ramos, who gave up a two-run homer in the first by Roger Maris, the major league leader with 26. The Nat's controversial right-hander, tagged a spitball pitcher by Baltimore manager Paul Richards and White Sox boss Al Lopez, was handed an automatic fine when he received a beanball warning after hitting Mickey Mantle.

Baltimore picked up three unearned runs in the second inning at Boston against loser Tom Brwer (5-7), then clinched it with two runs in the fourth on singles by Marv Breeding, Jackie Brandt, Gene Woodling and Jim Gentile. Chuck Estrada (9-4) was the winner.

Kids Games Next Trick On CBS-TV

By BERNARD GAVZER

NEW YORK (AP) — There are hundreds of different kids games played on marked boards in which the players move toward the goal by flicking a spinner or tossing dice or picking cards.

Well, CBS has turned this into a grotesque giveaway game in which the contestants themselves move from spot to spot depending on the turn of the dice.

For people who have absolutely nothing else to do, this show will be available every day — 10:30 a.m., EDT — starting Monday, July 11. It also has a weekly nighttime windup each Friday — 9 p.m., EDT.

It is called "Video Village." It is a place no sane human would risk visiting, let alone inhabiting. The mayor is Jack Narz and he is assisted by Joanne Copeland.

With the opening show last Friday, CBS re-entered the giveaway business it quit when the huge bubble of giveaways burst in scandal. "Video Village" is allegedly tamper-proof. Besides, the prizes are so trivial—$10 here, $25 there—CBS is certain no one would attempt cheating.

The well-rehearsed guests exchange sappy banter with Narz. The gags might put a 4-year-old into paroxysms of laughter but most 4-year-olds we know are in bed at the time.

The allure of the bizarre and the mysterious tends to make us pay close attention. Who is able to ignore the promise of a mar flying or turn a deaf ear to the story of a ghost ship sailing the seas endlessly? Witchcraft holds this same fascination. At least, NBC hopes it does, for its second show of "Moment of Fear" deals with the subject in a story cunningly titled, "Conjure Wife."

Whether that moment of fear will come alive is conjecture. For a mystery to have impact, the fear has to transmit itself from the fictional character on the screen to the human being in the living room. In the first show in the new series, "The Golden Deed," starring Macdonald Carey, this failed to happen.

The sense of danger never communicated itself; the moment never really materialized.

Soviets Paving Their Way for Mars, Venus Or Astronaut Shots

MOSCOW (AP) — The Soviets have started their new series of long-range rocket tests to pave the way for attempts at Mars, Venus or putting a man into space.

The first of the new rockets was fired into the central Pacific Tuesday, traveling 8,000 miles "in exact accordance with the pre-set program," the Soviets said.

The Soviet news agency Tass said the shot "marks the beginning of the testing of new types of powerful, multistage carrier rockets for space exploration." It made no mention of the rockets' military potential as an intercontinental carrier for nuclear weapons.

The final stage of the rocket—a dummy of the instrument or man-carrying chamber that would be used in a space probe—"reached the water surface in close proximity to the target," Tass said.

The range claimed was 850 miles more than that reported for the rocket the Soviets test-fired into the central Pacific in January. The Soviets said that one came within a mile of the target.

The United States holds the distance record for rocket shots. Of the latest test, Tass said the rocket's dummy last stage had been "adapted for passage through dense layers of the atmosphere." This could indicate that the Soviets are preparing to try to bring back and recover a recover a nose cone from outer space, a necessary preliminary to sending a man into space.

THE HOLLOW MEN—Here's a double-take on an ancient Greek epic being filmed in Rome. Facing an attack by catapults, the "army" manning the ramparts at top is exposed as just helmets and capes mounted on wooden crosses. They're "extras" in "Sappho, Venus of Lesbos."

Potential Kingmakers

Pennsylvania, California Delegations Power Forces

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Pre-convention shakedowns pointed today toward the powerful Pennsylvania and California delegations as potential kingmakers in the Democrats' selection of a presidential nominee.

Out of the din of conflicting claims from supporters of the leading candidates there appeared to be emerging a general conviction among the party pros that if the two big—and nominally uncommitted—states go for the same candidate they can just about call the turn on the nomination.

But there was no assurance, as platform committee sessions continued preliminary to the opening of the convention Monday, that the two states would cast even a majority of the 81 votes each holds for the same candidate.

Gov. Edmund G. (Pat) Brown of California was reported leaning toward Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts. Informed labor union sources were betting that Governor David L. Lawrence will try to throw a majority of the divided Pennsylvania delegation behind Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri.

If Kennedy gets the support of both delegations, plus votes he may pick up from other favorite son or uncommitted states, his backers think the Massachusetts senator could make the grade on the first ballot. But Kennedy's opponents contend he can't climb that hill and will start sliding after the initial roll call.

Whether the Kennedy blitz tactics work may depend on how Gov. LeRoy Collins of Florida, the convention's permanent chairman, handles shouted requests for state vote switches likely to come when the official roll call nominal ends.

Supporters of Senate majority leader Lyndon B. Johnson, who formally threw his Texas hat in the presidential ring Tuesday, were reported working for change in the loosely drawn rules that now permit the presiding officer to recognize any delegation chairman he chooses.

Their effort reportedly was directed at slowing down any bandwagon surge that might develop if Kennedy came close on the first tally to the 761 votes required for the nomination.

Gov. Herschel Loveless of Iowa, who is clinging to his favorite son role at the head of Iowa's 26-vote delegation, said Collins had asked the rules committee to consider the question. Loveless heads the rules group.

The Iowa governor said he understands Johnson's backers are trying to prevent any vote switches at the end of the balloting. National Chairman Paul M. Butler suggested that the roll of states that might signify a desire to switch could be called alphabetically. Collins took that proposal under advisement but wouldn't say what he will do if the rules committee fails to act.

Symington's and Kennedy's supporters claimed choice mezzanine spots for their headquarters. Promoters of a drive to draft Adlai E. Stevenson complained they had been assigned by Chairman Butler only two small rooms near a hotel kitchen. They dubbed their quarters "Butler's pantry."

The platform committee barged into a controversy over medical care for the elderly.

Dr. Edward R. Annis, spokesman for the American Medical Association told members that it would be difficult for physicians to vote Democratic if the party endorses a program financed through social security taxes. Most of the presidential hopefuls already have done so.

Rep. Ray Madden (D-Ind) broke in on Annis' testimony to declare that some AMA officials are "playing politics for the Republicans" on the issue. The Eisenhower administration has opposed the social security approach.

Medical aid for the aged was named as one of the top issues for the general election campaign by many members of the committee. It was listed along with farm assistance, housing, and federal aid for education and depressed economic areas.

There was a feeling on the part of some members that these matters might overshadow foreign policy questions, despite the collapse of the summit conference and the withdrawal of the invitation for President Eisenhower to visit Japan.

However, Philip B. Perlman of Baltimore, former U.S. solicitor general who presided over the platform sessions, said he regards

Frank, Elvis Beguiled By Miss Browne

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Juliet Browne, born in Bombay and brought up in South Africa, has managed to beguile both Frank Sinatra and Elvis Presley.

She is 23, but wise and witty beyond her years. She has a pockmarked pretty face and a dancer's disciplined frame. Although she has been in America only 18 months, she can speak the idiom equally well with Presley's mountain boys and Sinatra's hep crowd.

To use Frank's phrase, she's a gas.

Producers and critics seem to think so, too. She drew raves for her work in her first Hollywood film, "Can-Can." "That floored me because I had so little to do in it," she said.

She did enough to win the lead opposite Elvis in his comeback film, "G.I. Blues." Inevitably, his interest became more than professional and they did some dating. This was while Sinatra, who had been escorting her regularly, was on a trip to the Orient.

Whenever Elvis and Juliet had heart-to-hearts on the set, jokers would warn them: "Here comes Frank!" It got to be a running gag.

A couple of weeks ago, a Presley lieutenant shouted "Here comes Frank!" and got a jeering reply from his leader. But—surprise!—there came Frank.

"It was a panic," Juliet recalled with a giggle. "I never in the world thought that Frank would ever visit me on the set."

All of which demonstrates the pull of the chestnut-haired charmer. It's also a tribute to her diplomatic skill that she managed to avoid a clash between the two singers and is able to juggle both dates without conflict. Until lately, everybody considered her Frank's girl.

the central issue as one of presidential leadership.

In an obvious shot at President Eisenhower, he said: "The nation is in desperate need of a president who will devote full time and effort to the duties of his office—a leader who has the ability and determination to resolve the great issues that face us and who will not attempt to escape, delay or confuse those issues."

Johnson's news conference announcement in Washington that he is just the man the country needs in critical times pepped up his adherents.

Gov. Buford Ellington, leading Tennessee's 33-vote delegation supporting Johnson, said the announcement would bring into camp some who had been hesitating because the Senate leader wasn't officially in the race. Ellington figured it would be Johnson on the fourth ballot.

But Symington said on a visit to Pennsylvania that he has never felt the northern states would support Johnson and therefore his colleague wouldn't get the nomination.

"I have felt that if Sen. Kennedy didn't make it on the first ballot, I would be the nominee," Symington said.

Robert F. Kennedy, brother of the senator, professed to be just as confident that Kennedy will win, and quickly.

"The King" (Tony Randall) and "The Duke" (Mickey Shaughnessy) catch up with Huckleberry Finn (Eddie Hodges) when they find him working as a cabin boy aboard a Mississippi River boat. The scene is from Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn," film version of the CinemaScope and color, of Mark Twain's famous story. Also starred are Patty McCormack and Neville Brand, with "Jim," the runaway slave, played by Archie Moore, world's light heavyweight boxing champion in his acting debut.

Old Wheat Shipments Add to Car Shortage

KANSAS CITY (AP)—Increased shipments of old wheat out of Kansas City terminal elevators is adding to the shortage of boxcars for the new crop, says a railroad man.

W. D. Mahoney, resident car service agent for the Assn. of American Railroads, said the movement of old grain has resulted from requests for the Commodity Credit Corp. for additional storage space for new wheat.

"This hurts us on car supply but it is providing space for the new crop, which is being unloaded very rapidly," Mahoney said.

Kansas City elevators received 3,016 carloads during the Fourth of July weekend—a heavy run but short of records.

"LAZY SUSAN" COUNTY JAIL, Callatin

Eight cells — one door! Heavily-barred pie-shaped cells in the revolving inner cylinder are rotated to the door by a hand crank outside the corridor surrounding the cells.

Six such "human squirrel cages" are known to have been built in the Midwest in the '80s. Originally intended simply to prevent contact between cells and minimize risk to the jailer, they often maimed and even crazed inmates. The rotary jail was a harsh answer even to the lawlessness of a fast-moving frontier society.

Today, only one cell of this jail is used. The crank is turned only for the curious.

Missouri can show you a rich and fascinating history in many fields. Since 1810, for instance, Brewing has been an important Missouri industry—and today "Beer Belongs" throughout the state. The United States Brewers Foundation, working in cooperation with all who sell beer and with public authorities, conducts a program designed to assure the sale of beer under orderly wholesome conditions.

Negroes Stay Away From Downtown Area

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP)—Negroes, in a switch of tactics, have begun a stay-away-from-downtown movement which they say will last until "conditions improve for all."

For several weeks—until Tuesday—Negroes had conducted sit-in demonstrations at various downtown stores in an attempt to get service at all-white lunch counters.

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — Prime Minister Nehru's government expects foreign nations to pay just over a fifth of the 21 billion dollars the third five-year plan is budgeted to cost. Most of the foreign aid is to come from the United States. The plan, unveiled Tuesday, will cover the 1961-1966 period.

American Tourist Remarks
Are Tiring Bits of Talk

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — American tourist remarks that people of foreign countries get tired of hearing:

"This is a nice-looking little country. Is it paid for?"

"Now that you people have got hard roads, when are you going to take a chance on modern plumbing?"

"Don't bother to ask if it's okay to take her picture. She probably wouldn't know what you were saying anyway."

"Yeah, it's nice as cathedrals go, but I thought the one in the last town had more real class."

"Don't tell me you're out of ice. Go freeze a pond. Go do anything. But don't come back without ice. What kind of a country is it anyway, where a fellow can't get a simple thing like ice?"

"George, take me back to the hotel this very minute. I can't stand hearing any more of this foreign gabble."

"I don't care how poor they are. If they had any pride at all, they wouldn't let their kids go around in such rags."

"Why do you just stand there and keep saying 'No comprendy'? Anybody who will just listen ought to be able to understand the kind of English I'm using with you."

"Never mind the museum. How about showing us something that will keep us awake?"

"Well, Ethel, I guess we been in this country too long already. Some of the natives are beginning to look almost intelligent."

"Gee, what funny looking money. What do they use it for—wall paper?"

"Hiya, Jo-Jo! Take me to your leader."

"Well, if you don't have any hot dogs or hamburgers, what do you have that is fit to eat?"

"Sure, I'll admit the view is fine up here. But tell me, what do you do for laughs?"

"The real trouble with a lot of these jokers is—they never had to meet a payroll."

"Don't give her money, Ethel. She'd probably much rather have a package of chewing gum to take home to her kids."

"Yes, it is picturesque — but everything seems so terribly, terribly dirty. If you pulled out a bar of soap, you'd probably start a panic."

"They could tell we're Americans. Otherwise, I'll bet you I could get this same room for a week—instead of a day—at the same price."
